

Cantine Russo

Etna Bianco DOC

Contrada Crasà

CONTRADA CRASÀ: Straw yellow color with golden hues, it has a delicate and full scent, with a hint of, peaches, apricots, white melon, aromatic herbs. The taste is persistent, full-bodied, mineral.

Aging: 8 months in stainless steel tanks

Refining: 3 months in bottle

Grape of origin: Carricante 80% Catarratto 20%

Location of vineyards: Solicchiata, Castiglione di Sicilia (CT)

Soil: volcanic

Height Min / Max: 700-1000 m s.l.m.

Alcohol content: 12.5%

The attention in producing our wines starts from the vineyard, first of all respecting the biodiversity present in our vineyards. The use of biological treatments based on sweet orange peel extract allows to act only on the organisms harmful to the vine while safeguarding the "good" insects. This product is sprayed on the plant, on the leaves, on the bunch, forming an oily patina which protects the vine from a series of pathologies

