

Verdicchio di Matelica DOC “Val Bona”

REGION

- Origin: Matelica, Marche, Italy
- Appellation: DOC (Denominazione di Origine Controllata)

GRAPE VARIETY

- Verdicchio di Matelica 100%

VINEYARDS AND TERROIR

- Vineyards are located on the east slopes of the Alta Valle Esina, at 350–450 meters above sea level
- The elevation allows for greater diurnal temperature variations, resulting in slower grape ripening and the preservation of vibrant acidity in the grapes
- Calcareous soils with clay and marl deposits, providing excellent drainage and mineral-rich characteristics to the grapes

TASTING NOTES

- Appearance: Clear, pale lemon. Bright and inviting in the glass
- Nose: Perfumes of acacia, linden flower and apple. Hints of delicate flowers and fresh herbs. Subtle mineral undertones lending a sense of terroir
- Palate: Crisp and refreshing. Surprisingly full-bodied with lively acidity. Flavors of lemon, pear and a hint of almond
- Finish: Clean, mineral-driven finish

FOOD PAIRING

- Grilled shrimps with lemon and herbs, light salads, bruschetta with fresh tomatoes and basil, seafood pasta
